Statewide Category:	Government Administration and Support
Purpose:	The Board of Tax Appeals is the state's final administrative tax court. The Board hears and adjudicates appeals of tax-related decisions by the departments of Revenue and Natural Resources and 39 county boards of equalization. The Legislature created the Board in 1967 to "provide a convenient and economical forum in which the appeals of individual taxpayers may be determined." Appeals filed with the Board primarily involve property, excise and boat taxes.
